

The background is a soft, light pink color with a subtle pattern of small white stars. Several thick, diagonal yellow brushstrokes are scattered across the upper half of the image. The bottom of the image is decorated with a dense border of various colorful flowers, including tulips, daisies, and small purple and blue blossoms. Butterflies in shades of blue, orange, and pink are also scattered throughout the design, particularly near the top and bottom edges.

The background is a soft, watercolor-style illustration. It features large, abstract shapes in warm tones of orange, red, and yellow, resembling petals or leaves. Scattered throughout are small, dark brown and gold dots, giving it a delicate, textured appearance. The overall feel is gentle and uplifting.
