

FRC Daily Bible Reading Plan

As you internalize each Scripture listed below, remember that the goal is to trust the Big Story of the Bible which calls us to repent and follow Jesus as His disciples.

Taking your reading to the next level....

Table Talk

With each passage consider these questions -- Discuss them with family and friends. The more you lean in to gospel centered questions with your loved ones, the richer your experience of scripture and discipleship will become. Likewise, when patterns of bible study and question asking are modeled for kids, they will “catch” on to these things! Questions are a gift and lead us to deeper connection with God.

1. What stuck out to you from this passage and what questions do you have after reading?
2. How do you see this passage connecting (or not connecting) to the story of Jesus and his teachings?
3. How can this passage speak into your life right now?

WEEK 1	☐	Exodus 1: The midwives here lied... yet it seemed to be the right thing to do. What do you make of that?
	☐	Exod. 2: Think about the theme of “redemption” – where do you see this in Moses’ story, and in your life?
	☐	Exod. 3: Why do you think God calls himself “I AM WHO I AM”?
	☐	Exod. 4: Do you feel similar to Moses in v.11? How does 2 Cor. 12:9 speak to this and your own weaknesses?
	☐	Exod. 5: How ought we respond when obedience seems to make our circumstances worse rather than better?
	☐	Exod. 6: God repeatedly emphasizes his covenant promises. What can that teach us in times that feel hopeless?
	☐	Exod. 7: The Egyptians had magicians with “secret arts.” Do you think these are still prevalent today?
WEEK 2	☐	Psalms 42: Has there ever been a season in your life that sounds like v. 1-5?
	☐	Ps. 43: Is 43:5 as easy as the Psalmist makes it sound?
	☐	Ps. 44: Read v. 5-6 again, and then read 1 Sam 13:16-22 – what do these passages teach about God?
	☐	Ps 45: Connect this Psalm to Jesus – what does it teach us about his kingship?
	☐	Ps 46: “Be still” with this passage awhile and consider where it speaks to you today and the world today
	☐	Ps. 47: How should God’s universal kingship shape the way we view worship, fear, and the nations around us?
	☐	Ps. 48: Try to memorize V. 14
WEEK 3	☐	Exod 8: Pharaoh keeps going back on his word! What’s the difference between regret and repentance?
	☐	Exod 9: We had damaging hail recently... how do you understand God’s hand/role in natural disasters?
	☐	Exod 10: Pharaoh’s wouldn’t surrender – how do pride and sin can distort our ability to respond to God?
	☐	Exod 11: What do you make of V. 10 when God hardens Pharaoh’s heart? Was that fair?
	☐	Exod 12: Jesus gives communion at the Passover meal – what are all the connections you see between those?
	☐	Exod 13: Celebrating Passover was a teaching tool for families – Do you think communion is similar?
	☐	Exod 14: Do you have a “Crossing the Red Sea” moment in your life? Where God MADE a way for you?

FRC Daily Bible Reading Plan

As you internalize each Scripture listed below, remember that the goal is to trust the Big Story of the Bible which calls us to repent and follow Jesus as His disciples.

Taking your reading to the next level....

Table Talk

With each passage consider these questions -- Discuss them with family and friends. The more you lean in to gospel centered questions with your loved ones, the richer your experience of scripture and discipleship will become. Likewise, when patterns of bible study and question asking are modeled for kids, they will “catch” on to these things! Questions are a gift and lead us to deeper connection with God.

1. What stuck out to you from this passage and what questions do you have after reading?
2. How do you see this passage connecting (or not connecting) to the story of Jesus and his teachings?
3. How can this passage speak into your life right now?

WEEK 4	☐	Rom 1: What do you think v. 18 means? How do you see people “suppressing the truth” today?
	☐	Rom 2: Paul says it is easy to judge others while we do similar things. Why at times are we blind to our own sin?
	☐	Rom 3: Look at v. 23, How do you see this in your life – and how does the gospel answer it in the next verses?
	☐	Rom 4: We are righteous by faith, not works. What’s that mean to you and where does that speak to your life?
	☐	Rom 5: How can we actually “Rejoice in our sufferings”? How is that possible?
	☐	Rom 6: Paul is serious when he says we are “In Christ.” How do you reconcile that when still struggling with sin?
	☐	Rom 7: Where in your life do you relate to vv. 15-24?
WEEK 5	☐	Rom 8: This is often called the greatest ch. in the Bible. Why? Put its message into your own words.
	☐	Rom 9: How does v. 6 affect how we view the modern day nation of Israel and our relation to it as Christians?
	☐	Rom 10: Look at v. 9 – are you tempted to think there’s more to be done to “earn” this salvation?
	☐	Rom 11: Paul warns not to become arrogant. Do you see spiritual pride in our community? Whys this dangerous?
	☐	Rom 12: “Present your bodies as a living sacrifice.” What would that look like in your life this week?
	☐	Rom 13: If love fulfills the law... how do you feel yourself growing as a person of love in this season?
	☐	Rom 14: What things come to mind in the modern day for vv. 1-10?
WEEK 6	☐	Rom 15: Look at vv. 1-2. Who might God be calling you to be more patient and self-sacrificial toward?
	☐	Rom 16: Summarize Romans – what was Paul trying to get across? Also, check out all the women Paul mentions!
	☐	Exod 15: Israel sings praise to the Lord...t hen grumbles. Do you see that same pattern in yourself or others?
	☐	Exod 16: Spend some time reflecting on the phrase “give us this day our daily bread.” Do you pray this daily?
	☐	Exod 17: Moses needed Aaron and Hurs help to keep his hands raised. What’s the message in that for us today?
	☐	Exod 18: What do you think of Jethro’s advice? Does it seem to relate to the model of a consistory for a church?
	☐	Exod 19: What do you think it means to be a “kingdom of priests”? See also 1 Pet 2:5-9; Rev 5:9-10

FRC Daily Bible Reading Plan

As you internalize each Scripture listed below, remember that the goal is to trust the Big Story of the Bible which calls us to repent and follow Jesus as His disciples.

Taking your reading to the next level....

Table Talk

With each passage consider these questions -- Discuss them with family and friends. The more you lean in to gospel centered questions with your loved ones, the richer your experience of scripture and discipleship will become. Likewise, when patterns of bible study and question asking are modeled for kids, they will “catch” on to these things! Questions are a gift and lead us to deeper connection with God.

1. What stuck out to you from this passage and what questions do you have after reading?
2. How do you see this passage connecting (or not connecting) to the story of Jesus and his teachings?
3. How can this passage speak into your life right now?

WEEK 7	☐	Ps. 49: How can you see this Psalms view of wealth apply to your life, and to our community?
	☐	Ps 50: If God has no need for sacrifice, why would people still bring them? What's the heart got to do with it?
	☐	Ps 51: Spend a LOT of time with this Psalm this week. What do you need to confess?
	☐	Exod 20: Which commandment do you find the most challenging to keep? How does grace speak to that?
	☐	Exod 21: What are we to make of passages that normalize slavery?
	☐	Exod 22: What do these laws reveal about what God Cares about in how we treat others?
	☐	Exod 23: God saysl, “You shall not follow the crowd in doing evil.” Where do you see this pressure today?
WEEK 8	☐	Exod 24: Look at verse 11 – is this a glimpse into communion and the table in heaven?
	☐	Exod 25: God wants to dwell with his people. Why is that? How does that affect your perception of God?
	☐	Exod 26: Why so much detail on the tabernacle? What things do you find significant?
	☐	Ps 52: Who or what came to mind while reading? Are we to have this same mindset toward our enemies?
	☐	Ps 53: Reflect on v. 1 – Does it take more faith to believe in a god, or not believe in a god?
	☐	Ps 54: When's a time God showed up as your helper as he does for David?
	☐	Ps 55: This Psalm gets at the pain of betrayal. When have you felt betrayed? How does Jesus speak to that?
WEEK 9	☐	Exod 27: Why do you think it was so important to keep the lamps burning?
	☐	Exod 28: Why all the detailed instructions? What's the point of all this?
	☐	Exod 29: The priest had to be consecrated – how often do you reflect on holiness? What do you think it means?
	☐	Exod 30: How does the Israelite's offering for the service of the tent of meeting relate to modern tithing?
	☐	Exod 31: What do Bezalel and Oholiab teach us about the variety of ways God can use our gifts?
	☐	Exod 32: We often use the phrase “Golden CalF” to describe traditions. What golden calves do you see in your life and our church?
	☐	Exod 33: Spend time with v. 15 – do you have the same perspective? Sometimes? What gets in the way?

FRC Daily Bible Reading Plan

As you internalize each Scripture listed below, remember that the goal is to trust the Big Story of the Bible which calls us to repent and follow Jesus as His disciples.

Taking your reading to the next level....

Table Talk

With each passage consider these questions -- Discuss them with family and friends. The more you lean in to gospel centered questions with your loved ones, the richer your experience of scripture and discipleship will become. Likewise, when patterns of bible study and question asking are modeled for kids, they will “catch” on to these things! Questions are a gift and lead us to deeper connection with God.

1. What stuck out to you from this passage and what questions do you have after reading?
2. How do you see this passage connecting (or not connecting) to the story of Jesus and his teachings?
3. How can this passage speak into your life right now?

WEEK 10	☐	1 Peter 1: When Peter says “In his great mercy”... is mercy what you first think think of God’s view toward you?
	☐	! Pet 2: Look at v. 11-12. What do you think this means to modern Christians? How about to you?
	☐	1 Pet 3: When Peter says to be ready to give an answer for your hope – how would you answer?
	☐	1 Pet 4: What stuck out to you from this chapter? What do you make of v. 13?
	☐	1 Pet 5: Spend time with v. 7 – what do you need to cast unto the Lord today?
WEEK 11	☐	2 Pet 1: look at verses 3-5 – what’s the relationship between faith, works, grace, and holiness?
	☐	2 Pet 2: This chapter’s tough. How can we discern false teaching ? What ought we do when we stumble?
	☐	2 Pet 3: Do you feel ready for the day of the Lord? What unfinished business do you have?
	☐	Ps 56: David channels his fear towards trust – where do you experience fear right now?
	☐	Ps 57: In v. 7 David turns to music in his distress. How has music spoken to you in times of distress?
WEEK 12	☐	Ps 58: What can this teach us about anger, desiring justice, and bringing things to God?
	☐	Ps 59: David is surrounded by enemies. With this in mind, why does he use the term “fortress” to describe God?
	☐	Ps 60: When David feels rejected by God, how can the story of Jesus speak to our feelings of rejection?
	☐	Ps 61: Look at v. 4 – that connects to something we’ve read in Exodus. What was it?
	☐	Exod 34: Spend time with v. 6. Is this how you view God? Why does God say this right after the golden calf?
	☐	Exod 35: What’s sabbath mean to you? What blesses you in sabbath, and what prevents you from sabbath?
	☐	Exod 36: Could you imagine a church like what’s described in v. 4-7? What inspires generosity?
	☐	Exod 37: God seems to care a lot about small details. Why is that? How has God shown that in creation?
	☐	Exod 38: Why use such valuable resources? Today, how does construction and church upkeep glorify God?
	☐	Exod 39: How have you seen everyday faithfulness “as the Lord had commanded” through your life?
	☐	Exod 40: Summarize Exodus – what’s the point?